The Mustard Seed celebrates Easter

(April 6, 2009) While thousands call the streets of Calgary home, The Mustard Seed Shelter provides a nourishing meal and a place to belong for those without family, friends, or a home this Easter. Hundreds of men and women struggling to overcome poverty in their lives are expected to participate in Easter celebrations this weekend while receiving hope, encouragement and a warm reception from Mustard Seed volunteers and staff at the Shelter.

We invite you to visit The Mustard Seed Shelter this holiday weekend to witness the incredible difference our volunteers, staff and donors make in the lives of our guests.

Date: Saturday, April 11, 2009
Time: 7:00pm – 8:00pm
Location: The Mustard Seed Shelter, 7025 44 St. SE

The Easter feast will include turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce, corn, buns and cheesecake for dessert.

Each guest will also receive a personalized placemat with words of love and encouragement from our donors and supporters. These simple, heartfelt messages can often go a long way in restoring hope and healing for the hundreds of men and women struggling to overcome poverty in our city.

Media interviews will be available with a Mustard Seed spokesperson from 7:00 pm – 8:00 pm.

Date: Saturday, April 11, 2009
Time: 7:00pm – 8:00pm
Location: The Mustard Seed Shelter, 7025 44 St. SE
